It is hard to believe that fall is right around the corner. Why does summer go by so quickly and winter seems to drag on for an eternity??? Well, as a bit of a "last hurrah" of summer, I have planned Happy Hour at the Starlite for September 7th at 6pm. We can decide as a group what we want to do afterward, since we haven't gone to a movie...yet.

Also, the planning stages for the "Bar Search" (this is a working title...) have started. Matt M and Jeremy have graciously volunteered to be the answer hunters for this event...I know, real tough to go to bars and seek out answers to questions, but hey feel sorry for me...I'm the DD!! Anyway if anyone has any suggestions for this event or any other social, let me know. I am always open to new ideas!

Enjoy what is left of summer!

End of Summer Bash

 Attention Jaycees

We will be helping out with a major fundraiser for our chapter. WIZM and 95.7 THE ROCK, have asked us again to work with them Saturday, September 8th at the Southside Oktoberfest Grounds from 6am to Noon for The Great Garage Sale.

5 workers will be needed at all times to help, including collecting money at the gate, directing vendors and running our food stand. Think breakfast brats. This year we will also have fresh hot U Bake rolls to sell. We need your help!!!

We will need 10 more Jaycees from 2pm to 10pm (or so most likely earlier) that very same day and place to work. "95.7 THE ROCK, END OF SUMMER BASH". We will be moving our stand into the large Oktoberfest food stand area to prepare for the 500 attendees, to sell food such as Brats, Hot Dogs, Hamburgers, Nacho's, Pop and Water. With all of the proceeds going directly to our chapter. We will also be serving beer the entire time also. We will receive a percentage of the beer sales. So this could be an extremely profitable day for our chapter. We will also need 2 licensed bartenders from 3pm to 11pm, if you can help our chapter out please let me know at the next meeting or call me at 785-0555.

As an added incentive Jaycee Bucks will be given out to all workers. And also we will have some tables set out during the Garage sale for Jaycees to sell items, we will just have to work out how to cover the tables and our other areas of responsibilities.

Punt Pass & Kick - Wrap Up

The chapter held the Punt, Pass and Kick Competition on August 18th. We once again worked with Channel 19, UWL, and Subway. 54 kids, ages 6-15, came out and competed, which with the rain was about half the number we usually get. They all had a great time with the UWL Football players during the clinic and the competition. Thank you to the following Jaycees for helping out to make this event a success: Donella, Kyle, Melissa, Kevin and Jen (guest).

The #1 winners in the age groups of 8/9, 10/11, 12/13, and 14/15, both boys and girls, will move on to the Sectional competition which will either be in Eau Claire or Platteville.

The winners: 8-9 Justin Kendall and Omega Hoepfner,
10-11 Jeron Kendall and Lane Dickman,
12-13 Dalton Soto and McKenzie Snustead,
14-15 Garrett Eide.
(sorry the 6-7 winners are at the hall)

Thanks,
Laurie Sonsalla

Hey fellow Jaycees! Fall is fast approaching and with cool weather just around the corner, it is time to start pulling out warm clothes and those delicious fall, comfort food recipes. Below, you will find an article in regards to such fall recipes; read, utilize, and enjoy!

A new spin on grilled cheese Associated Press

The humble grilled cheese deserves a makeover.

The simplicity and speed with which this classic sandwich can be assembled makes it a natural for a low-labor dinner after a long day. On its own it's great any time of year. Paired with a bowl of tomato soup, it's perfect fall comfort food. But turning to a classic doesn't mean you can't tinker with tradition. Here are some simple suggestions for bringing new life to your grilled cheese without turning it into an ordeal.

Condiments can make this sandwich a whole new experience. Ignore the culture clash and use thin slices of manchego cheese (from Spain) along with a few tablespoons of mango chutney (from India). Speaking of cultures, there is a whole world of wonderful cheese out there, so don't limit yourself to sandwich slices. Most any soft or semisoft cheese works well. Brie is heavenly. So are blue cheese, gouda and fresh mozzarella. Don't forget the meat. Some thinly sliced deli meats or shredded cooked chicken breast go well with virtually any cheese, take no extra time and help turn the sandwich into a hearty meal.

Bacon is divine. Cook a few strips in a skillet, then remove them from the pan, but don't drain the grease from it. Add the bacon to the sandwich and use the drippings as the fat for grilling the sandwich. Not healthy, but delicious. Even if bacon isn't your thing, don't automatically reach for butter. Experiment with oils, such as peanut and sesame, which will lend savory, nutty flavors to the bread. Roll with this one. Peanut butter and Cheddar cheese. A little bit of each will create a warm, oozing delicious mess. Bread variety can make a big difference. Hearty whole-grain breads add to the substance of the sandwich (white tends to just flatten out). Whole-wheat hamburger rolls are nice, too. And consider flour tortillas, which turn these into quasi quesadillas.

Whatever fillings you go with, following a basic construction formula helps ensure success. The best bet is to layer in this order — bread, cheese, other fillings, more cheese, bread. Having cheese on either end helps seal the sandwich.
